Cleaning by considering the environment is an important step in order to clean hygienically and at the same time affect health and the environment as little negatively as possible. The damage to be caused to the environment can be minimized not only by using eco-friendly cleaning products but also by using these products economically and adjusting their dosage well. In this way, the total damage of chemicals to the environment can be significantly reduced. ❖ We plan training for our employees regarding the use of chemicals and the measures to be taken in case of spilling/scattering of dangerous chemicals. ❖ We check that the pesticides used by the pest control company from which we receive external services are products that do not harm human health and the environment. We try to reduce chemical consumption originating from pest control by trying to benefit more from natural measures (fly traps, sticky paper, etc.). ❖ We utilize impermeable marbles on all shelves for chemical preservation in our chemical warehouses.
